7 Petitions from Members of the Council

8 Questions from Members of the Public

Maire Lowe has given notice that she wishes to ask the following question of Councillor Brett, Cabinet Member for Decent Living Incomes:

A fifth gambling establishment has recently opened on Acton High Street. Would the Council consider taking action to reduce the effect of these establishments on the more vulnerable residents?

Benjamin Allin has given notice that he wishes to ask the following question of Councillor Costigan, Deputy Leader and Cabinet Member for Climate Action:

Elthorne Park Road has passed the high-level filter on the council's traffic calming flowchart. A detailed localised study is therefore required. What will the study consist of, when will the study be concluded, and what criteria will be used to determine if the study shows traffic calming is required?

Ross Gilbert has given notice that he wishes to ask the following question of Councillor Peter Mason, Leader of the Council:

As a result of our FOI request, we're aware of the Cabinet decision in September 2021 and that the officers recommendation in July 2022 was to proceed with our development. Can you tell us when a decision will be made, given there are over 10,000 applicants on the Housing Register?
